INTRODUCTION

Welcome to the first business directory in Alberta geared specifically towards those companies operating in the functional foods and natural health products sector! This directory aims to highlight those companies that use bioactive ingredients as part of their products or processes, and those companies that provide services to this sector.

This directory offers an exciting outlook for functional foods and natural health products companies in the province of Alberta, and presents a diversity of companies who make use of renewable biological materials, from start-up to established business! Since this directory is in its first iteration, it is somewhat incomplete – the authors are aware of many other related businesses that were not able to participate in this first round of data compilation. It is the authors’ hope and expectation that as the directory becomes a better-known tool, additional companies will contact BioAlberta for their chance to be included!

HOW TO USE THIS DIRECTORY

The directory presents each of the participating companies in alphabetical order in the “Company Directory” section. The participating companies provided their contact information and a description of their services, which are included in their company description. They also self-selected from a list of categorizations and sub-categorizations, based on self-selected company categorizations, as well as the active ingredients in their products. Companies are listed by category and sub category in the “Categorical Index” section.

Users of the directory can find companies of interest based on their ingredients or company category from the “Categorical Index” section, and then refer to further information about each company in the “Company Directory” section. The user could also search an electronic version of this directory for keywords of interest.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

This project was made possible with financial and project support from Alberta Innovates (Bio), and with assistance from Alberta Agriculture and Forestry development officers. The project was directed by BioAlberta staff, and the directory was compiled by Viresco Solutions Inc. The entire project team is very grateful to all the companies who responded to the requests for information and provided the content herein.
