

In Search of Edmonton's Next Tech Unicorn

Please Join Us!

Edmonton has garnered global recognition for its academic excellence in Artificial Intelligence and is well positioned to be a Canadian technology and innovation hotspot. Canaccord Genuity Wealth Management is an engaged partner looking for ways to encourage investment in local Edmonton technology opportunities and to facilitate collisions and collaborations in the space. Join us in Edmonton for a sneak peek at a next generation of Canadian companies chasing unicorn status. To better hone your understanding of the rapidly emerging innovation economy, we will provide an overview of technology trends and a primer on investing in the space.
